

A diagram consisting of a single horizontal line. There are several vertical lines of varying lengths intersecting this horizontal line at different points. The vertical lines are positioned at approximately one-quarter, one-half, three-quarters, and near the end of the horizontal line. Some vertical lines extend both above and below the horizontal line, while others only extend above or below it.